Eating healthy is easier when you have access to fresh, affordable choices.

And now, more than 80 farmers’ markets in Los Angeles County accept CalFresh EBT.

Eat healthy and save more with Market Match.

The Market Match program offers additional money to CalFresh EBT cardholders who use their card to buy fresh fruits and vegetables. Be sure to ask your local market if they participate in Market Match! You can identify a market that offers Market Match incentives by looking at the list on the inside of this brochure, or by visiting the FMFinder.org website.

Let’s eat!

Use your cal fresh EBT card at farmers’ markets across Los Angeles County.
Use your CalFresh EBT card at farmers’ markets across Los Angeles County.

Here’s how:

Step 1 Go to FMFinder.org to find a farmers’ market near you that accepts CalFresh EBT.

Step 2 Find the market’s information booth, or the market manager, and ask how to use your CalFresh EBT card. Some markets, including the ones listed in this brochure, also provide Market Match incentives — additional money to spend on fruits and vegetables when you use your CalFresh EBT.

Step 3 Buy and eat! Enjoy all the fresh, nutritious food you’ve purchased for you and your family—with more flavor and less cost.

Conveniently located all across Los Angeles County, farmers’ markets are family-friendly, open-air market-places where California farmers sell fruits and vegetables, fresh baked goods, jams, juices, olive oils, yogurt and cheeses, fresh fish, pickles, and more—right in your community.
